Prayer Time

There is a common need to all that they be understood, that there is someone who can both emphasize and empathize with their difficulties and weaknesses.

Take a moment and think about Hebrews 4:15. Jesus has faced and been subject to all that we have faced and been subject to. He understands everything about you and is waiting to hear all that you want to tell Him.

When He tells you something to do in your life or to not do in your life, He already knows the struggles that you will face and the way that you will react to the struggles. You can follow Jesus with total confidence as He walks with you through both the common and uncommon things in life.

Open your heart to Him in prayer as He opens His heart to you.
